PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

The Honorable William F. Knowland
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Knowland:

Thank you for your letter of 28 May 1954
with its enclosure from [redacted] I am returning the enclosure to you as you may wish to retain it. [redacted]

[redacted] The memorandum is a most interesting one, and we are glad to have had it called to our attention as it certainly represents something which we should look into.
Mr. Dulles saw this as he was leaving the City and asked me to reply.

Sincerely,
